

Beat Giger Consultant

Milestones

Studies as dipl. geogr. and cultural anthropology at the University of Zürich. Studies of agricultural sciences at ETH Zürich, focused on social- and urban geography, north-/south difficulties, social theory and ethnical conflicts. First experiences as scientific assistant at the Swiss Forum for Population and Migration Studies. 1999 access to TQU GROUP as consultant and referee. TQM Auditor Systemaudit, EFQM Assessor, Six Sigma Black Belt.

Objectives of my work

Leading projects, processes and organizations to long-term success, sustainable and aim-oriented improve of internal competences. The main focus of my work is on the directed and methodical facilitation and support of employees in companies.

What decorates me

- Analytical skills to gather complex backgrounds in an efficient way
- The efficient application of the right method at the right time
- The concrete and practical communication of statistics and statistical methods
- Targeted and implementation-oriented project work
- Gladness of cooperation with others
- Willingness and claim of improving my own skills in every project/training
- Valued communication

These are my topics

- Moderation and training of quality methods (QFD, FMEA, DoE, SPC)
- Implementation/coaching of improvement projects
- Quality Management Systems
- ISO 9001:2008
- Training of Six Sigma Black Belts, Green Belts, Champions
- Trainings/Consulting in the field of Design for Six Sigma
- Corporate implementation of Six Sigma
- Lean Production

Akzente setzen